Overview

The Institute for Teaching (IFT) mission is to enhance, support, and sustain high-quality teaching and high-quality public schools for all California students. Through mobilizing teachers, special programs, research, conferences, networking, and community-based coalitions, the IFT seeks to advance public education and promote the common good of our students and communities.

Through our efforts we help all students and schools by awarding grants directly to CTA members and local chapters. To date, CTA members' voluntary dues contribution have funded a total of 501 grant projects totaling more than $5.8 million. For the 2022 -2023 school year the IFT awarded 48 grants totaling $599,457 to educators across the state to implement projects that will transform their classroom.

If you're interested in applying for an IFT grant, you will need to prepare a grant proposal, budget, and timeline. We are seeking grant proposals that are practical, action-oriented, and student centered. Using our Strength-Based Equity Matrix as a framework, your proposal must address all seven Strength-Based Equity Matrix factors as this will be the lens through which your proposal will be evaluated by our Grant Selection Committee.

The IFT grant application must be submitted online by March 31, 2023. Awarded IFT grants will be implemented during the 2023-2024 school year. We strongly encourage you to thoroughly review the contents of this resource packet before beginning your application. If you need assistance or have additional questions, please contact us at IFT@cta.org.

4 Things CTA Members Should Know About Applying for an IFT Grant

Visit the IFT website for more information: www.cta.org/IFT

1

Since 2010, the CTA Institute for Teaching has been utilizing a portion of CTA members' $20 voluntary dues contribution to fund strength-based teacher driven projects at schools all over California. To date, the IFT has funded 501 grant projects totaling more than $5.8 million. All CTA members are eligible to apply for an Educator grant (up to $5,000) or an Impact grant (up to $20,000).

2

This is a competitive grant program. Grant proposals are evaluated by the IFT Grant Selection Committee, made up of four educators from around the state and the IFT Program Consultant. These educators represent various grade levels and are experienced in the strength-based approach. To date, the IFT has received a total of 1,219 grant applications.

3

The grant application period opens on December 1, 2022. Applications will be due no later than March 31, 2023. Links to supporting documents and other information can be accessed from the IFT website. In May 2023, grant proposals will be reviewed by the Grant Selection Committee, using the Strength-Based Equity Matrix as a lens. The committee will select grant proposals to recommend for funding to the IFT Board of Directors.

4

In June 2023, the IFT Board of Directors will vote to approve the grant proposal recommendations. In July 2023, notification of funding will be sent to all applicants (awarded and non-awarded). Grant funds will be distributed in August 2023, for use during the upcoming school year. As part of the application process, Local Association Presidents are asked to agree to have the Local Association serve as the fiscal agent on behalf of the grant recipient. This increases accountability and ensures the individual member incurs no tax liability.

Types of IFT Grants

The Institute for Teaching offers two different grants. During the application period (December 1, 2022 - March 31, 2023), you can only apply for either an Educator grant or an Impact grant. Impact grants require a team of two or more members and all team members must be active CTA members. If you are implementing a grant project for the 2022-2023 school year, have been approved for a 2022-23 carryover, are currently serving as a team member for an Impact grant, or have not submitted the required reports for a previously awarded grant, you are not eligible to apply for an IFT grant until you have been notified that all grant requirements have been met. Before applying, please refer to the following documents in this packet: IFT Grant Application Eligibility FAQ, IFT Dos and Don'ts and Funding Guidelines, and IFT Grant Applicant Checklist.

Application Review Process

The IFT grant program is very competitive. Each year the number of grant applications received exceed our annual funding. To date, the IFT has received a total of 1,219 grant applications and awarded 501 grants totaling more than $5.8 million.

Applications submitted by March 31, 2023, will be reviewed and recommended for funding in May 2023 by the IFT Grant Selection Committee. The committee is made up of four educators from around the state and the IFT Program Consultant. These educators are past IFT grant recipients, represent various grade levels, and are experienced in the Strength-Based Approach.

To prepare applications for review, we remove identifying information (such as your name, school, and local association) to ensure a fair process. Each application will be reviewed based on its own merit using the Strength-Based Equity Matrix as a framework. Applications that are not selected for funding usually fall within these categories:

- Not student centered
- No clear plan to implement a project
- Responses do not address the matrix factors/questions
- Majority of budget allocated for stipends, guest speakers, or release time
- Majority of budget allocated to purchase equipment/services a district should provide

After the review process, all applicants will be notified of the outcome of award decisions. Grant proposals that are not selected for funding may be evaluated for improvement upon request.

Grant Recipient/Project Coordinator Responsibilities

In May 2023, the IFT Grant Selection Committee will review applications and identify grant proposals to recommend to the IFT Board for funding. In June 2023, the IFT Board will vote on the recommendations and applicants will be notified in July 2023 of award decisions.

If your grant proposal is selected for funding, you will receive an award letter detailing the next steps. As a grant recipient and project coordinator, you will be responsible for the following:

- Implementation of your grant project
- Tracking grant project expenses
- Meeting regularly with your Local Treasurer
- Attending two check-in meetings with the IFT Program Consultant
- Completing and submitting a Summary Report by July 31, 2024
- Completing and submitting a Financial Report by July 31, 2024

Grant recipients are strongly encouraged to meet with their Local Treasurer to discuss the local's reimbursement procedures before making purchases. All awarded grant funds must be accounted for and included in a financial report at the conclusion of the grant implementation year.

Strength-Based Teacher Driven Change

The Institute for Teaching attempts to bring a new approach to school change by focusing on two key factors: 1) change that is teacher driven and 2) change based on what is working and successful in schools and classrooms. Strength-Based Teacher Driven Change (SBTDC) is a result of the continual search by classroom teachers to invent and build on the great things taking place in their school communities. It is formulated from teacher experiences in the classroom, teacher school-community relations, as well as the teaching and learning process.

The IFT grant program supports CTA members' efforts to bring Strength-Based Teacher Driven Change to their schools. The SBTDC model allows educators to provide an asset-based approach to emphasize talents over weaknesses and strengths over deficits to create a learning environment that supports and encourages every student to do their best. By focusing on what works in schools, the IFT believes strength-based models for school change add a new dimension to school improvement.
